Beaverton Police conducted another in a series of regularly scheduled alcohol sting operations the evening of January 20th. Out of seven establishments contacted, only one sold to the undercover operative.

The lone 18 year old police cadet would enter the store and attempt to purchase alcohol to go or be served on premises. If asked for identification he was to produce his valid Oregon Drivers License showing him to be a minor. If the purchase was completed then officers would contact the employee and issue a citation. If service was refused then the employee would be congratulated for their efforts to keep alcohol out of minor's hands.

This program goes hand in hand with educational efforts offered to minimize alcohol consumption by minors and a zero tolerance policy on youth under the influence of intoxicants.

"We still believe that attacking this issue from all angles provides the most likely chance of positive results", said Beaverton Chief David G Bishop.

Arrested was Debra Diane GODDARD 51 years of age from Beaverton. She was charged with (1) count of Furnishing Alcohol to a Minor. She was cited and released from McCormick and Schmicks restaurant located at 9945 SW Beaverton Hillsdale Hwy.
